Dear Mr. Friedman:

Reference is made to your letter and report, dated March 5, 1993, concerning problems you have encountered in dealing with the civil service disability retirement program.

I have asked my staff to review the four specific cases you described in your report. At the conclusion of that review I will be able to comment on the problems you have cited.

With regard to the other issues you have discussed in the report, I am having my staff contact the disability retirement program officials. Based on our evaluation of their response together with our independent evaluation of the four cases you specifically cited, we will decide whether any further action is warranted by this office.

Sincerely,
